

[1959. Christendom's Key Issue: 25 Scholars' Views (Contributor). Christianity Today 12 Oct.]

Christendom's Key Issue: 25 Scholars's View

What is the most vital issue facing contemporary Christianity? Twenty-five leading scholars responded to this query posed by CHRISTIANITY TODAY.

GORDON H. CLARK, professor, Butler University: “The source and cause of all other issues facing contemporary Christianity is the neglect and repudiation of the Scriptures. If there is no intelligible, written revelation, then all opinions are superstitions. On the other hand, if God has given us information and commands, we should accept and obey without addition or subtraction.”